PB4L Focus

Recycling Our Rubbish

Keep Our School Clean and Green

Show respect

- Put all rubbish in the correct bin
- Green Bin – recycle cans/bottles
- Yellow Bin – all food scraps
- Blue Bin – Land waste

Act Responsibly:

- Immediately put all rubbish in the correct bin
- Pick up any rubbish and put in the right bin
- Think twice before putting any rubbish in the Blue land fill bin – remember it is a one way journey.

Be Safe:

- Immediately dispose of all rubbish in the correct recycle bin
- Wash hands immediately after handling rubbish

April School Holidays - reminder

School closes for the April School holidays on Friday 15 April and reopens for Term 2 on Monday 2 May.

Change of Date: Duffy Role Model

Assembly Friday 1 April

The Duffy Role model assembly has been changed to Friday 1 April 9.30 a.m. with Ray Bishop

CV: Musician and entertainer Ray Bishop is originally from Tokoroa and attended Tokoroa High School. Ray now lives in Auckland and in 1980 he wanted to build an academy to support the dreams and aspirations of young people through singing and role play. In 2011 he created the iDream website and then went on to travel from Kaitaia to Invercargill and introduced 50 schools and 50 public libraries to the iDream Programme. Ray also facilitates workshops and music concerts to help young people chase their dreams and make positive and healthy choices in life.
